

Did you know there are 23 murals, painted by local artists, celebrating the history and heritage of Punta Gorda located around the city? This narrated tour will not only amaze you with the breadth of fascinating events which occurred right here in the area but will be entertaining with anecdotes and bits of "local color". Punta Gorda is full of mystery and history and we'll visit some "not so well known places" too, so come along and see and hear "the rest of the story".
